“ On behalf of the L'Ambiance Board of Directors, I want to say how sorry we were to hear of Dimitar's passing. He was a kind and welcoming neighbor to so many of us and his resolve to remain physically active right into his 100's was a huge inspiration. I expect that his many patients over the decades are also grateful for his warm attention and caring expertise. His reward was an extraordinarily long, healthy, and important life that we can do nothing but admire.
