

Don B. Semeyn

April 18, 2018

Don B Semeyn, 93, passed away peacefully on April 18, 2018. He was preceded in death by his wife Eleanor Semeyn and son Mark W Semeyn. He is survived by his daughters Marilyn (Hubert) Denison and Patricia (James) Voth, 9 grandchildren, 13 great grandchildren and his wife Joan MarSh'all-Semeyn.

Don was born and raised in Grand Rapids, Michigan. He served in WWII and the Korean War as an officer in the Naval Reserve. In 1945 he married Eleanor Oaks and soon began a career with Dow Chemical Co., which lasted until his retirement to Florida in 1979. Don and Eleanor made many trips during retirement. Because of his lifelong love of boating, Don earned a Life Membership in the U S Power Squadron. Don also enjoyed stamp collecting and bridge. In his later years he enjoyed living at Sunnyside Village, where he met his second wife Joan.

A memorial service will be held Friday, May 4 at 10:30 am in the Sunnyside Village Chapel, 5201 Bahia Vista St, Sarasota. A Military Honors Ceremony at Sarasota National Cemetery will be at 2:30 pm. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Sunnyside Foundation or U.S. Power Squadron.
