

Donald Ward Castle

July 3, 2017

Donald Ward Castle of Sarasota, Florida passed away on July 3 at age 90. Don was born in Cleveland Ohio and spent his early years there before moving to Maplewood NJ.

He graduated from Montclair Academy and Lehigh University, where he majored in business. His education was interrupted for WWII, during which he proudly served in the Navy in the Pacific.

Don spent his career in the insurance business at his firm, The Castle Company in Springfield NJ.

He was predeceased by his wife of 55 years, the former Priscilla Jones of Glen Ridge, which is where they lived for 30 years and raised their family.

He's survived by his son, Don Castle (Robin Albing) and their children, Don (Erica), Alex and Elizabeth and also his daughter Jane Fraleigh (CJ) and their children Ryan, Casey, Kerry and Liam.

Raised a Christian Scientist, he became a devout Episcopalian as an adult and worshipped at Christ Church (Glen Ridge), Church of the Holy Spirit (Orleans, MA) and Church of the Redeemer (Sarasota).

He was most passionate about his family, his friends, Cape Cod, golf, his dogs and Lehigh.

The burial will be private.

If donations are desired, please send in memoriam to Lehigh University,
Bethlehem PA 18015
