

Donald Patrick O'Hanlon

April 25, 2021

Donald Patrick O'Hanlon was raised on Vinegar Hill and later lived in Fordham the Bronx and Staten Island, New York. He died peacefully at home in Sarasota, Florida on April 25, 2021.

He started his career as a teller for Manufacturer Hanover Trust Co. and worked his way up to being a systems analyst for JP Morgan Chase Bank when he retired after over 30 years. In addition, he gave 3 decades of service to our country as a Marine Corps Reservist earning the 9th and highest rank of Master Gunnery Sergeant. Donald was active and made friends easily. He was an avid bowler, collected Toys for Tots at Christmastime, and served as an unofficial ambassador for Oakwood Manor, where he enjoyed serving coffee to his friends almost daily.

He was predeceased by his parents Thomas and Alice (O'Hagan) O'Hanlon and siblings Thomas, Kathleen, and Alice; and leaves his devoted longtime partner, Helen Bonner; four daughters from former marriages: Laura, Karen, Denise, and Kathleen; nephews and nieces, including Alice Casey and Patricia Walsh, who were like sisters to him; four grandchildren; and many friends.

A military burial has been scheduled for June 29, 2021, at 1pm, at the Sarasota National Cemetery and a separate celebration of life will be held later this year.

I first met Don O'Hanlon in 1983 when I joined VMA-131 aboard NAS Willow Grove, PA. Over the years we became great friends, and I will always treasure the many conversations (and gallons of coffee) we shared. Your consistency, professionalism and Esprit de Corps made me a better Marine. I'm certain that you've inspected and squared away the Marines on duty guarding the gates of Heaven!

God Bless & Semper Fidelis, my brother -
