“ Doris was a true and dedicated friend to so many, especially her beloved friend, Wesley John Schumacher, being there for him during his last few years of life. She put up a valiant fight against her cancer while maintaining a positive attitude and caring for others. My sympathy to her family and friends.

“ Doris was always a take charge kind of gal. Paul and I can still see her standing on top of the picnic tables at the family reunions to run the business portion of the meetings. She always remembered everyone's names and made it a point to greet and make all feel welcome. She has touched many lives and will be missed by many.
