Doris (Van Horn) Lord passed away peacefully on Friday, August 20, 2021, just 5 days short of her 97th birthday.

She is survived by her son, Ronald Kovilaritch and daughter-in-law Carolyn of Sarasota, Fl, her grandson, Edward Tillinghast and his wife Sandra of Cinnaminson, NJ, her granddaughter, Natasha Kovilaritch of Boston, Ma, great grandson Bryan Tillinghast, of Marlton, NJ, and great-granddaughters, Alexandra and Sophia Zuna both of San Diego, California, as well as several nieces and nephews.

She is preceded in death by her loving husband William Lord, her daughter Joann Weiss, her son Frank Kovilaritch, granddaughter Linda Bachman and granddaughter Tanya Kovilaritch.

Doris was born in Camden New Jersey and a longtime resident there before settling in Somers Point, NJ, where she resided for many years. She relocated to Sarasota, Florida in 2019 to be closer to her only surviving son Ronald.

Doris came from a large family and enjoyed many good times with them all. She would love to reminisce and share stories of those fond memories.

Doris prided herself on being a strong, determined and independent woman and anyone knowing her knew there was a lot of power behind her petite frame. She lived a full and active life until the end and had deep faith she would be reunited with all her loving family members passed on before her.

A Memorial Service to celebrate her Life will be held at 11:00am on September 9, 2021 at Lakeview Memorial Park, Route 130 North Cinmaminson, New Jersey.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks donations be made to Hospice Foundation.
