“ Growing up in East Meadow Dottie was our back door neighbor. She was a good friend of my mother’s. She was smart and peppy and we all loved her. She was very nice to me even though I was only 15. Years later after my mom died I was in East Meadow and visited Dottie and we talked about my mother and the plays they were in together.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family during this difficult time. I hope that the promise in 1 Thessalonians 4:14 can bring comfort. Knowing that there is a hope for our love ones lost in death can be reassuring.
