

Dr. Janet R. Brown

October 8, 1933 - July 25, 2018

Dr. Janet R. Brown of University Park, Florida and formerly of Hastings-on-Hudson, N.Y and Hampton Bays, N.Y. She is survived by her spouse, Maggie Martin; brother, Ken Brown; nieces, Jackie Smith, Debi Brown, Carrie Whitlow; and her great nephew Tanner Lemke. She was a teacher of English in Cleveland, Ohio and New Hope, Pennsylvania and a Professor of Educational Psychology at Queens College of the City University of New York. She was also Director of Assessment Testing and Research for the University. Janet's love of the arts began in Cleveland where she was introduced to the Cleveland Orchestra under the direction of George Szell. Theatre became a passion for her as she participated in community theatre in Cleveland. Theatre in both New York and London held a special place in Janet's life for many years. She continued to support theater after she moved to Sarasota. Donations in memory of Dr. Janet R. Brown, may be directed to FSU / Asolo Conservatory, 555 Tamiami Trail, Sarasota, Florida 34243. A celebration of her life will be held on September 1, 2018 from 4 PM – 7 PM at her home. Toale Brothers Funeral Homes are in charge of arrangements.

“ How does one start to speak about a figure bigger than life. My big sister was always there with words of wisdom. Even if I didn't ask for them. She has been the head of the family since our mother passed in 2010. Now that duty falls to me. A task I did not see coming so soon. My sister will live in my heart forever. ILM.
