“ Back in 1973-76 I lived across the hall from Earl and Linda, at 606 Surf, Chicago, one of Earl's properties. He and Linda were memorable and kind, infact they took me to a Blackhawks game !! I always remember those days in 'New Town', Chicago, as it was called back then. I remember Shannon and Cammie as little girls playing on the back landing steps. They were so cute and fun. They had just seen the movie 'Benji' . We were all younger with so much life ahead. Good memories . Linda and family, I am so sorry for your loss. Thoughts are with you.
