

Eileen Watts

November 26, 2020

Eileen Watts passed away November 26, 2020 in Sarasota. She was born and raised in Larchmont, New York and loved it very much and had a lovely childhood.

Eileen was a graduate of Syracuse University. She was the darling wife of Charles Franklin Watts and was a world traveler being interested in French antiques.

Eileen was an excellent photographer, which grew out of her participation in photography clubs. She was a member of Church of the Palms, a variety of groups including Stephen Ministry and Circle Disciple. Eileen was a benefactor of the church, belonging to the Legacy Foundation.

A graveside service will be held at 11 AM Wednesday morning December 9, 2020 at Sarasota Memorial Park.
