January 16, 2020

Eleanor Anderson Breen, 98, of Venice, FL, passed away peacefully on January 16, 2020 of natural causes. Eleanor quickly joined her loving husband of 72 years, Daniel T. Breen, who passed away on January 8, 2020.

Eleanor was the last survivor of seven siblings raised in Duluth, MN, children of Swedish immigrants. Eleanor worked as secretary to the principal at nearby Holliston High School from 1963-1986. Always ready to explore, Eleanor and Dan traveled extensively during retirement both domestically and abroad. In 2004, they began spending the winter months in Venice, where they gladly became fulltime residents in 2008. The couple leaves behind their son, Daniel K. Breen of Tigard, OR; daughter, Deborah B. Yahner of Asheville, NC, and son Brian P. Breen of Boston, MA, as well as three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

“ To my Breen cousins,

I've been thinking back to the fun times we had when your family came to our Island Lake cabin near Duluth. Our parents treasured those summer visits. There was grilling, laughing, skipping stones, swimming and catching up while sitting on the beach.

Great memories, for a great family,

Gwenn Anderson Davies

“ Dear dear sweet Eleanor. I will miss you more than most will know. I have been in awe of you since I joined the family in 1973. Such fond memories of your large barbecues in your Hopedale home. I love that we continued to call each other for decades. I will blow a kiss to heaven, on your birthday (Valentine's Day). My condolences and love to Dan, Deb and Brian.
