

Eleanora B. Sangillo

May 26, 1929 - August 9, 2020

Eleanora B. Sangillo was born May 26, 1929 in North Bergen, NJ. She was the fourth child of Angela (Battafarano) and Michael Durso. She is survived by her brother Francis X. Durso and his two daughters Elena and Andrea. She is preceded in death by her beloved husband Christopher Sangillo and her four other siblings, Leonard, Marie, Richard, and Anthony Durso.

Eleanora was a devoted elementary school teacher for over forty years, primarily in the New Jersey Public School System. Her last teaching assignment, prior to retirement, was at Ketler Elementary School in Westwood, NJ where she taught from 1968-1991. Eleanora's life was dedicated to the education of young people. She was a very caring person who placed the needs and concerns of others ahead of her own. After retiring from her long teaching career, she relocated to Sarasota, Florida where she served as a hospital volunteer well into her senior years.

She was loved and will be missed greatly by her family and friends.

A memorial services will be held at 9:30 a.m. on Monday, August 17th at Incarnation Catholic Church, 2901 Bee Ridge Road, Sarasota, FL 34239.

“ Ellie was a beautiful woman filled with great stories and an amazing amount of love. Her gift of knowledge was shared well after she retired from teaching and will live on through many of us whom she touched. I miss visiting with her in Sarasota when she and my grandmother lived on Bee Ridge Road - such great memories.
