

Elizabella Hope "Bella" Barnett

July 29, 2002 - April 28, 2022

Elizabella Hope "Bella" Barnett, 19, Of Venice passed away unexpectedly on April 28, 2022. She was born on July 29, 2002 in Canton, Ohio to Donald and Carrie (Wiman) Barnett.

Bella attended East Canton Elementary School in Ohio. After the family moved to Florida in 2010 she attended Alta Vista Elementary where she participated in cheerleading, choir, the jump rope team, and even figure skating. In Middle School she was on the Track team and a member of the No Bully Club. While at Sarasota High School, Bella played for 2 years on the soccer team, where she lettered twice, she was on the Volleyball team for 1 year and lettered, and even gave Softball a go. She graduated from Venice High in 2020, having been accepted by 2 different colleges, of which she chose S.C.F.

Bella worked as a server at Fins, Byioke, Itchibon, and the Gold and Black Coffee Company. She also worked with Harman Custom Painting, Handyman Hammers, and WalMart. But the most important things in Bella's life were her family, her friends, and being an Aunt to Liam, Karsyn, and Brynlee. She loved her beach time, exercising, singing, crafts, painting, and skateboarding.

Elizabella leaves behind her parents Carrie and Josh Harman, her father Donald Barnett, her grandparents Linda Wiman, Dave and Debbie Wiman, and Elizabeth Barnett, her sisters Courtney and Sophia Barnett, Aliyaha Whitaker, and Kerstan Harman, her brothers William and Delt, Parker Barnett, and Zak Harman, her niece Brynlee, and her nephews Liam and Karsyn. She also leaves behind several aunts and uncles in Ohio and Indiana.

Bella's life will be celebrated on Saturday, July 30th, what would have been her 20th birthday, from 4:00 until 7:00 pm at the Venice Community Center, 326 South Nokomis Avenue in Venice.
