“ Beth, it sounds like your mom was a special woman who was much loved by her family. We're sorry that we never got to meet her. May you and all of your family find comfort in the good memories and knowledge that she's now at peace. Love, hugs and prayers. ”

“ To those of you that knew my mother you knew she lived life on her terms. She fought hard and loved harder. When the lord took her she once again went on her terms. She was tired and ready to go;she will be missed dearly. Love you Mom! ”

“ Not a moment will go by from this moment on, that I will not think of you. My heart is heavy knowing the thought you are gone; however my heart is warmed to know that you are no longer in pain. Soar high grandma, and watch from above as we (your grandchildren and great grandchildren) take on the world. I love you and can't wait until we see eachother again. ”
