“ Erica was a beautiful young lady with a big heart. I married her late Grandfather, Tom Larkin, and we loved and admired the little girl who grew up to be special. I will always hold fond memories of the times we shared with her as a little girl, and everyone who came in contact with her will never forget. She fought a very tough battle, but could never seem to win. She is now at peace and will never have pain again. Please rest in peace, Erica, you will never be forgotten. Hug your Grandfather for me!
Love you, Grandma Gayla
