

Eugenia P. Finstad

February 21, 2023

Eugenia (Jean) Finstad, 94, died unexpectedly at her home in Sarasota, FL, on February 21, 2023. She was born in Harrisburg, PA, where she grew up before moving to New Jersey with her family and raising her two children.

Jean moved to Siesta Key in the late 70s, and she took advantage of the warmer weather by playing tennis and swimming almost daily. She enjoyed reading, painting, playing piano and was a well-rounded sports fan, following both college (Penn State) and pro football (Tampa Bay Bucs), baseball (Tampa Bay Rays), as well as horse racing and hockey.

She is predeceased by her husband Paul Finstad of Sarasota, FL, and her sisters, Claire Kunkle of Medford, OR, and Elizabeth Maskel of Camp Hill, PA. Jean is survived by her son Jeffrey Mehler (Sonia Velasco) and daughter Lynn Miller, both of Sarasota, FL.

No funeral services are planned at this time.
