

Felix Walton

January 1, 1921 - March 4, 2016

Fondly remembered, Felix Walton, 95, of Sarasota, Florida passed away peacefully at Pines of Sarasota with family by his side. A WWII veteran as a Seaman First Class with the US Navy, Felix is survived by his wife of 38 years, Pamela; two children from a previous marriage, Dorman (Rudene) Walton, and Denise (John) Baringer; and three stepchildren, Andrea Smith (Timothy) Sisk, Chuck (Jamie) Smith, and Ryan (Bonnie) Smith, as well as many grandchildren, and great grandchildren.

Born in Lindsay, Oklahoma, Felix, who was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, obtained his MS in Math and Physics at Oklahoma State University. In addition to his military service, he also excelled in several professions. He was a farmer, a teacher, a jeweler, and a businessman. But, first and foremost, he was a loving son, brother, husband, father, grandfather, and friend.

A military funeral honors ceremony will be held at the Sarasota National Cemetery on April 25th, 2016 at 10:00 AM, with a "Celebration of Life" immediately following.

Arrangements by Toale Brothers Funeral Homes, Gulf Gate Chapel

Tribute Wall

“ So sad for your loss. She was a special and lovely lady. ”

Patti Boyd - January 08, 2025 at 11:34 AM