

Florence Blohm

April 25, 1922 - December 3, 2017

Florence Blohm, 95, of Venice, FL died Sunday December 3, 2017 in Venice. She was born on April 25, 1922 in Wooster, Ohio to George and Ethel (Kiser) Gauweiler.

During WWII she was in the USNR (Waves) After being discharged from the service she remained in the Washington, DC and Maryland area.

She worked for and retired in 1984 from Prince George's County, Maryland school system as a school secretary and after retiring she moved back to Ohio and lived in New Philadelphia, Ohio and then moved to Venice.

She was the last of six siblings, Margaret Gauweiler, Evelyn Myers, Donald Gauweiler, Virginia Young and Doris Allenbaugh all have preceded her in death. She was preceded in death by her parents and her son, Michael Blohm.

Survivors include her son, Gerald (Sandra) of Venice, FL; also a friend, Fred Crothers.

There will be no local services.

Toale Brothers Funeral Homes, Ewing Chapel is handling arrangements.