

Frances June Platt

November 6, 1947 - February 28, 2023

Frances June Platt, 75, peacefully went to sleep in Jesus, surrounded by her devoted sons on February 28, 2023. Born on Nov. 6, 1947, in Louisville, KY, she later moved to Sarasota, FL, where she later met and married the love of her life, Rodgers W. Platt—both inseparable for 33 years.

She spent most of her life as a homemaker, and in Christian Book/Supply retail before her retirement. She loved motherhood, scrapbooking, church volunteering, studying God's Word, painting, etc., until ill health interfered.

June's giving heart impacted so many around her as she was a devoted Christ follower, who loved her family and friends—always putting others before herself with a smile and serving heart that harvested a lifetime of love by many.

June is predeceased by her loving husband of 33 years, Rodgers (1999), and her parents, William and Ethelene.

She leaves behind her loving sons: Jason (Heidi) and Jon (Jackie) both of Sarasota; grandchildren: Jeffrey (28) and Richelle (27) (Lance); Olivia (17); great-grandchildren: John (6), Calie June (5), and Weston (3).

After a long and brave battle against a series of recent strokes, words cannot express how much she will be missed for her giving and loving spirit. Many thanks go out to the amazing staff of Tidewell Hospice of Sarasota for providing dignity and compassionate care.

Visitation will be 11am-12 & services at 12 on Saturday, March 4th at Toale Brothers Funeral Home of Sarasota on Orange Avenue. Graveside services to follow at Sarasota Memorial Park.

“ June was a fine, Christian woman who loved the Lord, her family and friends. She will be missed dearly but I know she is enjoying her Heavenly home with her Heavenly Father. What a wonderful reunion she is experiencing with her Husband, relatives and friends. God be with the family during this very difficult time. ❤️🙏
