Gary Grumbley, 64, of Sarasota, passed away peacefully on Monday, May 11, surrounded by the love of his family.

Gary was a devoted husband, loving father, and proud grandfather whose kindness, warmth, and sense of humor touched everyone who knew him. He had a deep love for fishing and was a passionate supporter of Florida sports teams, always enjoying cheering them on with family and friends.

Gary will be remembered most for the joy he brought to others. No matter the occasion, he greeted everyone with a big smile on his face and an even bigger hug. He had a way of making people feel welcomed, loved, and important, and his presence could brighten any room.

He is survived by his beloved wife, Teresa Grumbley; his daughter, Jessica Russo, and her husband, Frank; his son, Nick Grumbley; and his cherished grandchildren, Joseph, Elizabeth, and Michael.

Gary will be deeply missed by his family, friends, and all who had the privilege of knowing him. Though he is no longer with us, his memory, laughter, and love will remain forever in the hearts of those who knew him.

“Those we love don’t go away; they walk beside us every day.”

“ Gary was a wonderful neighbor of mine long ago on 32nd St. I am so sorry to hear this news. We spent many good times together with Teresa and the kids, having Easter egg hunts and gatherings together when we were younger. Lots of good memories here. Love to all of you at this tough time. Gary was a very nice guy. ☐ Get together with your friends, life is so short.
