“ My deepest sympathy goes out to the entire family. You all were the first people I met after moving to Florida when I was 12. I could not imagine any better neighbors and friends. I will never forget when Mrs Gorski (as I always called her) was so excited she got her drivers license renewed for 10 years by mail. I think she was in her late 70s. She was always so happy and bubbly and funny. Please remember all the good times and she can now be back with Mr Gorski. Love you all and you are always in my heart.
