

George James Luby

September 25, 1931 - November 17, 2016

George James Luby passed away peacefully at his home in Venice, Florida on November 17, 2016. He was 85 years old.

George was born in Rockville Centre, NY, where he met Betty, his beloved wife of 60 years. After graduating from St. John's University and serving in the United States Army, he spent his career in corporate management at Avon Products and Chesebrough Ponds. Before retiring he was the CEO of Fragrance Impressions Limited, a company he co-founded.

George lived on Long Island, NY until moving the family to New Canaan, CT. He then retired to New London, NH, and Venice, FL, where he was a member of Jacaranda West Country Club.

In addition to his loving wife, George is survived by his four children: Barbara (Joanne); Thomas; Jane (Douglas) Morrison; Robert (Chansey); and his two cherished grandsons, Andrew and Riley Morrison.

A funeral mass will be held at Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church in Venice on December 6, 2016 at 10:30 AM.

In lieu of flowers, those wishing may contribute to Tidewell Hospice, 220 Wexford Blvd., Venice, FL 34293.
