“Gerry and I were classmates at Washington and Lee University. We were the only students there from New Hampshire. We shared many classes and he was a great friend. I'm happy to see he had a great family life and contributed much to society....Bill Hamner

“Gerry was the man I needed to meet when I was in my second year of Law School in Springfield. He helped me focus on living One Day at a Time and not worrying about what I couldn't control. After many years I followed in Gerry's footsteps and found myself at MassMutual in the Law Dept.. On a trip to Florida I went to visit Gerry in Sarasota. We talked of old times, promised to keep in touch and that was the last time I saw him. Without his help, I dont think I would have finished school and who knows what my life would have been like. Thank you Gerry for taking the time to speak to a lowly law student!
My condolences to his family and friends.

“An "older member" of our college class of '62, I admired Gerry for his sense of humor and the noble quality of his voice and carriage.

“ Dear Friends -- I knew Gerry from my years in the MassMutual Law Division, where I was fortunate to overlap with Gerry. I didn't end up working long-term in his area of specialty, but I did train with him for several months, in a rotation. He was SUCH a knowledgeable and competent person, and was the essence of integrity. What an outstanding role model he was. I felt so fortunate to have had him as a colleague. He often spoke, too, about how happy he was to be a father. -- Carol Johnson

I posted some comments on the "Legacy" obituary, but found this one later. In any case, Gerry was my sponsor and friend for 35 years. We were very dedicated to helping others and was an intelligent and caring person who was proud of his children and grandchildren. I met him in 1986 in Springfield, Mass. We stayed friends for the past 30 years here in Florida, and visited him every six months or in Sarasota. Condolences from my wife Kris and I to the Ouellette family. Dan Hundley. ..
