

Gill P. Tardif

October 18, 1934 - February 20, 2018

Gill P. Tardif, 83, a seasonal resident of Sarasota and Freeport, ME, passed away on February 20, 2018 at home in Sarasota. He is survived by his wife, Terry Saunders Tardif, four children, Suzanne Mager of Derby, VT, Michael Tardif of Toronto, Canada, Michele Fodero of Jericho, VT, Jerry Tardif of Hudson, MA, and ten grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his first wife, Monique in 2014.

Gill was born in Lewiston, ME and graduated from St. Dominic's High School in 1954. He served in the U.S. Army from 1954-1956 in Ft. Lee, VA and Korea as a Specialist 3rd Class. He was a member and volunteer of the Franco American Heritage Center in Lewiston. He was an avid hockey player and coach in earlier years, having played varsity hockey in high school.

He was a member of St. Judes Roman Catholic Church in Freeport and St. Thomas More Catholic Church in Sarasota.

He retired from Digital Equipment Corporation in 1991, where he was a marketing specialist.

He was a huge football fan and a devoted father. Gill was a glass half full kind of guy, who had a great sense of humor and loved people!

A Funeral Mass will be held on Friday, March 2nd at 9:30 am at St. Thomas More Catholic Church.
