“ I was honored to attend the wedding of Stacy and Gordon. I previously had met Gordon at their bridal shower in Michigan. The wedding was so beautiful and while there were so many guests I didn't have a chance to personally talk with Gordon but I saw the love expressed between Stacy and Gordon and to this day still reminisced over their wedding and shared the photos with friends (I always hoped they didn't mind as I never sought their approval). I hope I gave Gordon a chuckle as he saw his pictures being shared numerous times. Gone too soon!

“ Through the years of their marriage I enjoyed so many pictures of Gordon and Stacy together, both smiling, often with a beach nearby, or out on the water. They traveled often, all through Florida, always smiling.

He came with Stacy to the 4th birthday party of my granddaughter Emma. I think he was a bit bewildered at all the 'Frozen' references and the 'Anna' costume Stacy had gotten for Emma. He was such a good sport about it all. A few years later I was able to remind him how impressive he was that day! We laughed together.

“ Gordon and I became friends when we lived next to each other in the Carolina Club. We used to do everything together. As time passed and life moved on we ended up going separate ways. He moved up north and met his wife. We spoke several times and kept in touch online. He was a loved and blessed man. Every time I saw a picture of him he was with Stacey and always with a smile. I will miss you buddy. Friends forever Neil
