

Hacker, III P. John

June 20, 1944 - November 12, 2017

John P. Hacker, III passed away peacefully on November 12, 2017 surrounded by his loving family. He is preceded in death by his father John P. Hacker, Jr., his mother Mary Moore Hacker, and his brothers William H. Hacker and Thomas M. Hacker. He is survived by his brother Robert W. Hacker (Christina), his children Catherine Cadena, Amanda Gostel (Marcum), Lindsey Schaeffer, and SSG William Hacker (Kate). He is also survived by 9 grandchildren, several nieces, and a nephew. John, a Vietnam War Veteran, moved to Bradenton in 1974 from Sandy Springs, GA. He loved the area for its beauty, casual atmosphere, and of course, the weather. He would often take advantage of the wonderful climate by enjoying a Sunday game of golf. He also relished the opportunity to go see a movie and read the latest suspense novel. John was particularly known for his quick wit and keen sense of humor, and could always be counted on for a good laugh. John was a loving and devoted father and grandfather and was extremely proud of all four of his children. A visitation with the family will be held on Saturday, December 2nd from 1-4pm at the home of his daughter, Lindsey, located at 9405 64th Ave E., Bradenton, FL 34202. All who knew John and his family are welcome to attend and celebrate his life by sharing good stories, good food, and of course, a good laugh.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Tidewell Hospice.

Tribute Wall

LD

“ Condolences to John's family and loved ones. May you cherish fond memories. ”

Larry Denyes - November 21, 2017 at 12:00 AM