“ There are so many amazing memories of your dad, known always as Lance to me. He invited me to light a Hanukkah candle in his home, brightening a dark December night in Niskayuna. He threw me for quite a loop when he claimed to remember my mother from their days at Farmingdale and referred to her as “Hot Phyllis” -I was intensely relieved to learn that he graduated 5-6 years earlier and was just messing with me. But that is how I will remember Lance (Hal). A kind, giving, gentle man with a fantastic and unwavering sense of humor. I am honored to have had him in my life and will remember him always. ❤️

Two memories of Hal stand out in my memory. He performed a wonderful service at my son Eric's wedding, substituting for a rabbi - at a Lutheran church no less. And then if you went to a restaurant with him, he always asked the strangers at the next table for a taste of their food.. Also, he was always a great husband to my sister, but especially great during her last months. He will be sorely missed.
