

Harriet Kast Oestreicher Lane

March 11, 1932 - February 24, 2023

Harriet Lane, 90 years young, passed away peacefully on February 24, 2023, at Hospice House, Sarasota surrounded by the love of her daughters.

Harriet was born March 11, 1932, in Kenosha, Wisconsin to the late Irving and Regina Kast and eventually settled in Waukegan, Illinois after her marriage to Marvin Oestreicher. She was preceded in death by her loving husbands, Marvin Oestreicher, and Dr. Eli Lane and Sister, Shirley Kast Josephs.

Harriet enjoyed many cultural events at Ravinia in Illinois, the Chicago Symphony and all of the arts in Sarasota. She ran the family business, Northwestern Drapery Company, in Kenosha Wisconsin; following in the footsteps of her father Irving and her husband Marvin, even after their deaths.

Harriet met Dr. Eli Lane in Illinois and later married spending much of their time in Chicago enjoying the arts. Soon they became snowbirds in Sarasota for quite a while, eventually settling in The Meadows where they continued to cultivate life-long friendships, the love of the arts, restaurants, and culture.

Harriet is survived by her loving daughters Jody Oestreicher, Jill Eden Oestreicher, (Adam Norton), Stepsons Dr. Richard Lane (Dr. Karen Weihs), Dr. Philip Lane (Amanda Howland), Daughter-in-Law Dr. Gail Schwartz, grandchildren Jonathan Lane (Claire Chisholm), Dr. Jessica Lane (Adiv
