

Harry Robert (Bob) Hofferberth

June 22, 1934 - February 3, 2017

Harry Robert (Bob) Hofferberth, passed away at 1:26 PM on Friday, February 3, 2017 due of the effects of dementia.

He was 82 years old, living in Sarasota FL. He was the son of Harry and Gladys Hofferberth of Dayton, and is survived by his brother Jim, wife Jean and his five children, Lynn Dille, Dave Hofferberth, Debbie Breen, TJ Hofferberth, Traca Noel and 11 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Bob was a native of Dayton, who moved to Sarasota, FL nearly 20 years ago. He was a graduate of Fairmont High School in Dayton, the University of Cincinnati (OH) and Harvard University (MA). During his lengthy career at NCR in Dayton, he was the head of Manufacturing and Engineering, followed by leading NCR's efforts to become the leading automated teller machine (ATM) in the world. An avid musician throughout his life, he founded the Sarasota Jazz Ensemble. He was also on the board of directors for Goodwill Industries in Dayton.