

Henry Reifen Levy

August 2, 1930 - June 24, 2017

Henry Reifen Levy of Bradenton Florida, formerly of Paramus NJ and Somerset NJ, passed away on June 24, 2017 at the age of 86. Born on August 2, 1930 in the Bronx, NY, he graduated from Taft High School, Long Island University and received a master's degree in Social Work from Rutgers University.

He served 2 years in the U.S. Army stationed in Germany and worked for over 33 years for the NYC Department of Social Services.

Mr. Levy lived for many years in Paramus, NJ where he was a member of Temple Beth Or.

He was predeceased by wife, Shelly Sherman Levy and survived by wife Kay Spindel Levy, their children Howard (Liz Knisely) Levy, Mark (Debbie) Levy, Paul Levy and Cathy Dwyer, Lisa (Gordon) Fine, Robert (Mei) Dinoff, Peter (Tricia) Dinoff, and 10 grandchildren, Sam, Marlene, Sarah and Jason Levy, Benjamin and Samara Fine, Frank, Lily, Jordan and Mathew Dinoff. Beloved uncle to numerous nieces and nephews. Best friend of Zane and Wendy Garfein.

He was a member of the Congregation for Humanistic Judaism in Sarasota, Florida.

Memorial services will be held in NJ.

Tribute Wall

DS

“ Kay, you know how much we all loved Henry in Spring Lakes, he always has a smile on his face. We will miss him.

Donna Sims - June 30, 2017 at 12:00 AM

KP

“ Kay, my sincerest condolences. We will miss Henry at the bridge group very much. He was a gentle and gracious man.

Kris Perry - June 27, 2017 at 12:00 AM