My sincere condolences to the Meltzer family. I met Howie at the Y four years ago and we immediately became close friends. He was a kind, caring, loving and loyal person who had a quick wit. He had a true passion for life. There will be a void in my life with the loss of my friend. May you rest in peace my friend.

“ Howie, was my Sunday morning Y friend. He would bring me a bagel every Sunday that I would work the Fitness floor. We both loved watching and talking sports, especially the Tampa Bay Rays. Howie's wife was so kind to me when I found out Howard was in Hospice and she or their son would hold the phone so I could visit with Howard several times before he passed. I will miss you Howard, especially talking Baseball. You are in a peaceful place now. Rest in peace. Goodbye my good friend.
