“ Just finding out about Coach Spungen. He was a teacher and baseball coach in my youth at Pittsburgh Schenley High. I wasn't that good, but earned a letter as a statistician. A gentle soul who pushed you to always do your best and took the time so show you. Most sincere condolences to the Spungen family.

“ To Howard the Elder, I will miss your dry humor and your attitude toward humanity. I will never forget the day you said, "You look like you play poker." We were both working for the Orioles at Spring Training games. I admitted that I did indeed play poker and that was the beginning of a nine year weekly relationship. The first night I joined the group I knew that we were from a similar background and a connection was made. Shalom. Rest in peace my friend. Howard, The Younger.
