

Irene Fitzgibbon

April 3, 2017

Irene Fitzgibbon died peacefully in her home, surrounded by the love of her family.

She is pre-deceased by her husband Joseph Vincent Fitzgibbon and survived by her children and their families, Joseph John Fitzgibbon of Venice, FI; Elizabeth Bullock, husband Lyle of Nokomis, FI and daughter Ruby; Coleen Fitzgibbon, husband David Comb of Manchester by the Sea, MA and sons Dylan and Tristan Comb, and Cecelia Fitzgibbon, husband Scott Cameron of Philadelphia and sons Stuart and Ross Cameron.

Irene lived in the Venice, FI area since 1991, most recently at Aston Gardens and previously as a resident of Venice Gardens.

Prior to that, she was a resident of Attleboro, Seekonk and Rehoboth, MA, employed at Texas Instruments as an executive assistant and then as the OSHA coordinator.

She was a volunteer at Venice Hospital in the Critical Care unit for many years, a volunteer at Venice Public Library and an enthusiastic member of the Venice Gardens Red Hat Society.

Irene had a lifetime interest in style and aesthetics and a flair for fashion. She was a devoted mother, an avid reader, an accomplished seamstress, and beloved friend to many.

She will be deeply missed.

Condolences should be sent to Ewing Funeral Home, 140 E Venice Avenue, Venice, FL 34285.

“ Paul and I visited Irene in 2017 and always loved our conversations. She and I worked together at Texas Instruments and became fast friends. She was a wonderful person, full of life. She will be missed but we are so happy that our paths crossed many years ago.

“ My sympathies to all of the Fitzgibbon family for the loss of your beautiful mom.
Col, I am so sorry and wish I could be there for you as you have been so many times for me. I am close by if and when you need me.
Love,
Sha
