May 20, 2021

Ivor Wynn Williams, 77 passed away on May 20, 2021 at Fawcett Memorial Hospital, Port Charlotte, Florida, following complications of heart surgery.

Ivor was born and raised in Wilkes Barre, Pennsylvania, and was the youngest son and last surviving of nine children.

Ivor was a beloved husband, father, Pop, and friend, and is survived by Georgia, his wife of 51 years, son Ivor II and Jeanne, son Kevin and wife Kelly, and precious granddaughter Emily.

Ivor proudly served his country as an SK3 in the United States Navy, stationed in Vietnam. Ivor was a skilled tradesman, and has blessed countless homes in Sarasota County with his skills in tile and flooring, while passing his skills along to his two sons.

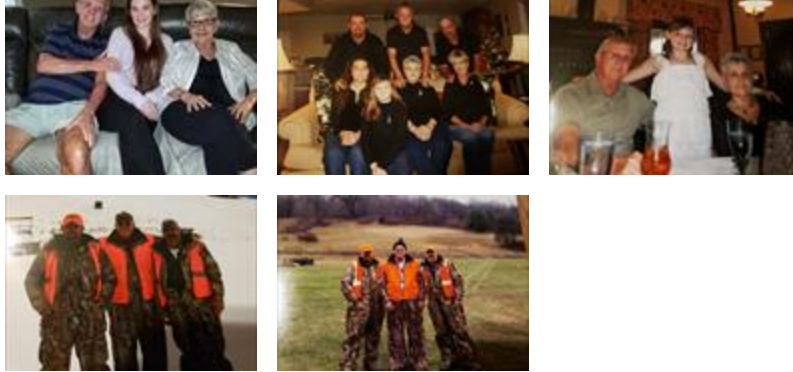

Over the years Ivor enjoyed coaching Ivor II in Little League baseball, being in the front seat watching Kevin's weightlifting meets, and taking Emily to soccer games. Nothing made him more proud. Ivor also loved fishing, hunting, and restoring rifles with his boys.

“ *Ivor was generous, kind and caring. When my niece went missing he would call me periodically to see how I was doing. I really appreciated that.
All of his old classmates looked forward to seeing him every year at the reunion.
He will be missed by everyone who knew him.

“ My fondest memory of Ivor was in our 6th grade class room when he made fun of my hair! Such a silly memory, but it always makes me smile. That was Ivor. God took a warm and caring person to sit with him. Good-bye dear Ivor. Rest well.

“ So sorry for your loss. Ivor & Kay were a big part of our Lake-Noxen class of 1962, many fine memories. Will miss Ivor at our annual reunion, always a fun time. After my own bypass surgery in 2011, Ivor stopped by to see me in Noxen. I couldn't sit up very well, but I sure appreciated his thoughtfulness. From both of us, Tom & Barb Field

I have fond memories of Ivor and Kay and the big part they had in the class of 1962. It was always a treat to see Ivor at our reunions and reminisce about times together at Harvey's Lake. Sounds like he enjoyed life and his family to the end. God bless all of you.

Ivor had a witty sense of humor and a hearty laugh. Glad we spent Christmas 2018 together. You were a great tour guide in VA. Thanks for your service to our country. RIP
