

Jack Lee Morgan

January 29, 1937 - February 4, 2020

Jack Lee Morgan was born on January 29, 1937, and died in his home on February 4, 2020. On this night, he joined his beloved wife of 54 years and the mother of his children. He missed her greatly.

Jack was a husband, father, prominent business man, Mason, Shriner, tenor soloist, Kappa Sigma fraternal member, Air Force Infantry Flight Medic and finalist for the Metropolitan Opera as a tenor soloist.

Jack lived in New York as a child so that he could attend and sing with the St. Thomas Boys Choir. He attended the University of Florida at the impressive age of sixteen and later stole our mother's heart by merely opening his mouth and singing. He had a beautiful tenor voice and sang for over 50 years in the Church of the Redeemer Adult Choir, Key Chorale (now Choral Artists of Sarasota) and Gloria Musicae.

He is survived by his son Gregg and wife Carol Morgan, his daughter, Morgan (Lynn) Rivers and her husband Jason, his five grandchildren: Jack Morgan, Dr. Gregg Morgan and his wife Ariel, Dr. Krista Morgan-Pursglove and her husband Dr. Jamie Pursglove, Lauren Morgan, and Tristan Rivers. He is also survived by his "adopted" daughter Jill Rowoldt and brother Robert Siwik and his wife Barbara.

In the end, he will be remembered as both generous and kind, and gentle and playful. His generosity helped countless children in the medical community and he enabled both his children to achieve their dreams. As a father, he was supportive, forgiving, stubborn, yet yielding. He provided for his family unconditionally and felt his family was his greatest accomplishment. He loved them without limit and they in turn will never forget him.

The service will be held at the Church of the Redeemer on Saturday, February 15 at 11:30, with a reception to follow.

“ The first interaction I had with Jack was at an American Guild of Organists Inter-Church Choir Festival at Manatee Junior College. I had just performed a piece on the organ and, when I returned to the tenor section, Jack turned around and complimented me. Years later, I had the pleasure of singing with him in the Redeemer Choir as well as Gloria Musicæ. He had an amazing voice, and I enjoyed his company very much. As we were both tenors, we often sat beside each other and traded knowing looks and observations during rehearsals! I am so sorry to hear of his demise!
