

Jacquelyn "Jackie" (Dobbs) Witte

April 9, 1930 - August 29, 2016

Witte, Jacquelyn "Jackie" (Dobbs) April 9, 1930 - August 29, 2016. She was born to parents Blanche Geneva Wiggins and Clark Jennings Dobbs of New Richmond, Ohio. There she met her loving and devoted husband of 62 years, Gilbert J. Witte. Together they raised four children on the farm where she also grew up.

She is survived by her daughter Genevieve Knauss of Omaha, NE and sons Mark Witte (and wife Karin Broker) of Houston TX, Eric Witte (and wife Paulette) of Louisville, CO, and David Witte (and wife Crystal) of Yorktown, VA. She was a loving grandmother to six grandchildren, Erik, Nicholas, and Kassie Knauss, and Ryan, Mark, and Christopher Witte; and to great-granddaughter Grace Witte and great-grandsons Aiden and Jaxon Knauss. Also preceded in death by mother-in-law Mamie Virginia Giesting and survived by brother-in-law Lawrence "Pat" Giesting (and wife Joann).

In 1994, she moved with her husband to Venice, Florida, at which time she became a resident of the Harrington Lake community in The Plantation in Venice, Florida.

Throughout her life, Jacquelyn's faith in Christ was reflected in the love she showed for her family and friends, always thinking of others' welfare before herself. Jacquelyn enjoyed taking annual, long road trips around the country with her husband to visit their children and grandchildren.

She had a particular fondness for warm weather and for the Atlantic coast and Gulf beaches.

She was deeply loved by her family and friends, and will be dearly missed.

Funeral service to be held at Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church located at 1301 Center Road, Venice, Florida on Saturday, September 3rd at 10:00 am.
