“ My condolences on your loss. I was looking up an old army friend and I'm not sure if it's the same guy as the photo looks similar but I could've sworn his hair was lighter. I served in the 82nd Airborne in the late 1990s and was wondering if your son was there too.

“ I know you do not know me but I sincerely send my condolences to you and your family at this sad time. I would like you to keep in mind this beautiful scripture which god made us a promise Revelation 21:4 says " he will wipe away every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, nor will outcry, nor mourning, nor pain be anymore these former things will pass away. So this scripture tells us of what god has in store for his people. I do hope this scripture can give you some comfort.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences in this time of grief. My wish is that the words of Christ Jesus be of comfort, when he stated that "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out" (John 5: 28, 29). We can also take comfort in God's personal promise to "wipe out every tear" and that soon, even "death will be no more" (Revelation 21: 3, 4).
