

James Lewis Harrison

April 8, 1926 - September 19, 2016

James Lewis Harrison, age 90, of Sarasota, Florida, passed away Monday September 19th, at his home.

Jim was born April 8th, 1926, in Atlanta, Georgia, the son of Carlos Dee Harrison and Addie O'Kella Powell. Jim moved to Sarasota in 1956, mostly to hunt and fish, which were his passions throughout life.

Mr. Harrison is survived by his son James Harrison of North Carolina, and three grandchildren, Branden Bunting Harrison, Ian James Harrison and Nora Elizabeth Harrison. He is also survived by a stepdaughter, Dale Turner and her two sons, Kevin & Kyle Turner, and a stepson, Mark Weedman and his children Frank and Shannon Weedman, all of Sarasota. Mark and Dale were the children of Jim's late wife, Margaret McFayden Harrison. In addition he had six loving great grandchildren.

Jim was a long time member of the First Presbyterian Church where he served in many roles over the years. His work here in Sarasota included operating Harrison Motors, early on, and then twenty years at the vocational school where he was both a teacher and councilor. Jim will be greatly missed by family and friends.

A celebration of his his life will be on Tuesday, October 25, 2016 at 1:00 PM

First Presbyterian Church, Sarasota, Florida.
