“ My husband and I were friends with Jim and Mary for many years. We were golf partners, dinner partners and basically close friends. They were there for me when my husband Joe died in 2010. They were wonderful friends that were always there for me. Memories of Jim will live in my heart forever.

“ To Bob and Laura and the kids, We are saddened by the loss of you father and grandfather. While we did not know him well we did see during his visits to Naperville. He was always good for a chat about any subject and was always ready for the next driving adventure. He had a great run and we wish you the best during this time.
