“ We had the pleasure of spending time with Jane and John at their Florida home. The love that Jane and John shared was extremely apparent, as soon as we walked into their warm home, we met two people filled with joy and happiness. I can truly say they were two of the most kind individuals we’ve ever met. And the rolling pins!
May her soul rest in peace💜

“ We had a memorable wake and funeral with a Catholic mass for my Mom (Gigi). All five children shared about the amazing life my Mom had and the 67 years married to my Dad, John. We will always remember the love , empathy, and joy she gave all of us. She was a devout Catholic who loved Jesus and Mary, and she now is in Heaven. We feel her Holy Spirit Presence and will miss her greatly!
Thank you for your prayers and thoughts, especially for my 96 year old Dad, who loved Jane so much.
