My mom was vibrant and filled with boundless energy. She was the life of the party and attracted many friends and admirers. It pains me that I'll never see her again but I'll always have the memories of her in the prime of life.

“ Jan was my neighbor for many years. She showered us all with her grand cooking. New Year's Eve we spent together for crab legs and champagne (for me). We spent time just chatting and being friends. May you Rest In Peace, and enjoy reuniting with Malcolm. Say hello to him and Don. 🙏🏻🌈🙏🏻

“ I have so many beautiful memories of Aunt Janet growing up in Connecticut after we all slowly moved over from England. Lots of photos and stories to share with family. She was so special... an English rose for sure. I will miss her... 🌹

She was not just my mother in law but a great friend while at the same time never losing her sense of humor. She was truly one of a kind and anyone could tell that immediately upon meeting her. I will never forget all the times she made us laugh. She always knew what to say. Truly a classy woman.
