

Janet Hevey

February 4, 2016

Janet Elizabeth Seiler Hevey, 89, born in Pana, IL, daughter of Rex and Mary Seiler passed away February 4, 2016. Janet graduated from the University of Denver with a degree in business administration. After graduating she moved to Chicago, where while working for Time, Inc. she met her husband of over 55 years, Robert D. Hevey. In 1980, they retired to Sarasota where they were active in the arts and numerous charities. Janet had a wide range of interests including golf, gardening, painting, travel, reading and playing bridge and dining out with her friends. She had a tremendous appreciation of the visual and performance arts, supporting the Florida Studio Theater, Sarasota Orchestra and The Ringling Museum of Art. Janet also loved to volunteer at Selby Gardens, the Ringling, the Women's Initiative and the United Way. She was a longtime member of the Colonial Dames and loved researching and documenting her family's genealogy.

Janet joins her husband Don in eternal peace. She is survived by her children and their spouses, Robert Jr. and Constance of Chicago, IL; John and Nancy of Cornelius, NC and Craig and Jane of Davidson, NC; and 6 grandchildren: John Jr. And his wife Samantha, Matthew and his wife Michelle, Michelle, Gillian, Clayton and Justin as well as Jane's daughters Carolyn and Hannah. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Plymouth Harbor Employee Assistance Fund, 700 John Ringling Blvd. Sarasota, FL 34236.
