

Jeremy Davis

January 28, 1980 - August 15, 2016

Jeremy Davis, 36, of Englewood, FL passed away peacefully on the evening of Aug. 15th 2016. He was born in Port Charlotte, FL to Floyd (JR) and Valarie Davis on Jan. 28th 1980.

Jeremy was the loving husband to Cheryl (Bouchard) Davis and a wonderful father to his 3 young sons, twins Noah and Wyatt (9), and Colton (6). He was the only brother to Katie (Davis) Croyle who quotes "I am so proud to be his little sister."

Davis was a strong man of God who walked through life by faith. So many will remember him as the one who prayed with them, or their football coach/sports announcer at LBHS, which is where he graduated from in 1998.

Jeremy's love for the Lord brought him to Tulsa, OK where he attended Rhema Bible College, graduating in the spring of 2005 as an ordained minister. Upon graduation he worked as a children's/youth pastor with local churches. During the last 3-4yrs, Jeremy worked as a hearing aid specialist for Connect Hearing in Englewood.

Family and friends will remember him by the hope and joy be brought into their lives, that unforgettable nasally laugh, humorous personality, and his love for sports.

After a double lung transplant in 2014, Jeremy was diagnosed with Lung cancer in 2015. Surrounded by loved ones at a hospital in Miami, Jeremy's battle with lung cancer came to an end, and he now joins his beautiful mother Valarie in Heaven.

On Friday Aug.26th at 2:00PM there will be a gathering with a service to follow at 3:00PM in Englewood at the Event Center 3069 S McCall Rd, Englewood, FL 34224.
