

Jo Ann Kantner

February 11, 1943 - March 28, 2023

Jo Ann Kantner passed away on March 28, 2023, in Sarasota, Florida after living most of her life in Sanborn, New York. Jo Ann is survived by her loving husband of thirty-five years, Donald Kantner, and her children: Peter (Nicole) Trapasso, James Trapasso, Adrienne (Brad) Waugh, and Tennille (Frank) Brill. She is also lovingly remembered by her grandchildren: Leah, Austin, Dylan, Chloe, Ava, Bradley Jr., Ily, and Frankie, as well as her siblings: Peter (Claire) Curione, Philip Curione, Charlie (Kathy) Curione, Louise (Mike) Kent, and Pat (Cindy) Curione. Jo Ann was born on February 11, 1943, to predeceased Peter and Evelyn Curione.

Jo Ann had a successful career in human resources at the New York Power Authority in Lewiston, New York. During that time, she was recognized as the local and state employee of the year.

After retirement, Jo Ann enjoyed spending time with her children and grandchildren. She was also an avid reader and loved doing crosswords and various other word puzzles.

Jo Ann will be remembered by her family and friends as being loving, kind, caring, and a great listener, as well as always providing heartfelt advice.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made in Jo Ann's memory to the Pulmonary Hypertension Association at <https://phassociation.org/donate/>.
