

Joan Sievers Cooper

January 31, 1933 - April 8, 2023

Joan Sievers Cooper died Saturday April 8, 2023 after a long battle with Alzheimer's. Born January 31, 1933, in Wakefield, MA.

Joan was blessed with two long and happy marriages. In 1950 she married Gerhard Rudolph Sievers. They resided in Norwood, MA and then Manchester by the Sea, MA until Gerhard succumbed to lung cancer in 1982. In 1993, Joan married Francis J. Cooper. They spent their time together between homes in Sandwich, MA and Sarasota, FL.

Joan enjoyed golfing, entertaining, and devoting her time to friends and family. Equipped with a wry sense of humor and a heart of gold, her family will always remember her as a fun-loving, vibrant, fiercely loyal friend to many as well as a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother. Joan was predeceased by her brother, William Dymont.

She is survived by her husband Frank Cooper(Sarasota, FL,) her son, Mark Sievers and daughter-in-law, Christina Thomas Sievers(Tampa, FL,) her grandchildren, William Gerhard Sievers and his wife, Sarah Tyler Sievers(Tampa, FL,) and Suzanne Sievers Miers and her husband Thomas Benjamin Miers(San Francisco, CA,) two great grandchildren, Karen Smith Sievers and Oscar Sievers(Tampa, FL,) four stepsons, Steven Cooper and his wife Andrea(Sandwich, MA,) Michael Cooper(Provincetown, MA,)

Kenneth Cooper(Sandwich,MA,) Kenneth's daughters, Monica, Julia and Rebecca Cooper, and Robert Cooper and his wife Emily(Plymouth, MA,) and their son Mason Cooper, as well as many nieces and nephews.

The family would like to thank her caregivers Jacob Owens, Sharon Lamar, Betty Jones, Merikye Milton, Katrina McDaniel, and Lakechia Lovell, as well as many others from Take Care Home Health that extended their care and kindness to Joan over the last several years.

Funeral services will be private at the Sarasota National cemetery.
