“ I remember the story of how you two met before driving out to Sparks, Nv. The best chance that was ever taken! You two were really the only couple that I became friends with, and spent a few visits with, at the Vermont house. Ill never forget John's always smiling face, his Tim Allen imitation, from Home Improvement, his ability to always find cool jewelry pieces for Cindy. We might not have been in close contact in the last decades due to distance, but always fondly remembered those times in Nv and Vt. I even got a surprise call from John when he and Cindy were out in San Francisco, and I only wish I'd known, as I would have driven in to see you both. Cindy, Katie, Nicole, he was a great guy, and you were so lucky to have him. Sending love, Liz (Rohde)

“ Back in the 70's John and I both worked for a company in White River Jct., VT, doing TV and other electronics repair. What a great guy, and.a great sense of humor ! We worked, but had a good time too. Cindy, our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. John and Betsey Adams
