“ John and I graduated from the Chamber of Commerce Institute for Organizational Management in 2003. Miraculously our class still all stayed in touch over the last 14 years. John was a stand out in our class. He always had a smile, words of encouragement and kindness. His passing exemplifies the saying that, Life is too short. My prayers are for his family and friends that have lost a good man. John, RIP my friend.

“ John will always be remembered for his quick wit, his exemplary leadership, and the utmost respect he gave his community and its residents. Anne, Michelle, the Ryan family and the Chamber family lost John too soon, and so did the Venice area community. I will always remember his kindness, his ability to view all parts of a situation before acting, and his love for his family as he spoke of them often.

“ Memories of all the classes we sat through together come racing back to my mind. Thanks, John, for making school a fun place to go and for always leading by example. Gone much too soon. You will be missed dearly by the class of '76.
