

Josephine "Jo" Poling

February 25, 1927 - December 27, 2022

Josephine "Jo" Poling, of Venice, Florida, passed away peacefully on December 27, 2022, at the age of 95. Jo was born on February 25, 1927, in Mansfield, Ohio, to Blanche Dorothy Kiehl and Raymond Russel Kiehl.

Jo was a graduate of Mansfield Senior High School, a bowling champion, an avid lover of golf, and she prided herself on being a self-educated investor. Jo moved to Sarasota, Florida from Columbus, Ohio in 1963. She also made a difference in the community, generously devoting years of her time and resources to numerous charities, including, Meals on Wheels, Habitat for Humanity, Best Friends Animal Society, Moffit Cancer Center, the Fruitville Public Library, and the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches.

Jo was married to her husband, Eugene F. Poling, for 40 years until his passing on May 28, 1991. Loved and adored by all who had the pleasure of meeting her, it is with great sadness that her friends and family announce her passing.

Jo has been laid to rest next to Eugene in Florida National Cemetery in Bushnell, Florida.
