While working the breakfast shift one morning he met Joyce, a cute coed and the woman he married at the First Baptist Church in Bradenton Florida in September of 1955. Joyce graduated with a bachelor's degree from the University of Florida College of Education and subsequently earned a master's degree in education from the University of South Florida.

After their marriage, Bob and Joyce lived in Charleston, South Carolina where Bob completed his active-duty Navy service. They moved to Sarasota County in 1958 and joined the First Baptist Church of Sarasota where they served in various capacities including Sunday School Teachers, Royal Ambassador Leaders, and numerous church committees.

Joyce served as President of the Delta Kappa Gamma International Honor Society for Women Educators and was President and Treasurer of the Sarasota Chapter of the International Reading Association.
