

Katherine "Kaye" Goosman

September 17, 1920 - September 11, 2017

Katherine "Kaye" (Minitter) Goosmann passed away peacefully on September 11, 2017. She was born on September 17, 1920 in New Haven, CT, the daughter of the late Bartholomew and Margaret (Fahey) Minitter and grew up in the New Haven, Ct area.

Kaye moved to New York City to become a professional dancer at the Roxy Theatre. After her marriage to the late Frank Goosmann, they moved to the Chicago area where she returned to college attending Roosevelt University in Chicago and receiving an Associates Degree from the College of DuPage in Illinois.

She worked as a reference librarian in Riverside Public Library for several years; then going on to work in information at the Amoco Research Center Library in Naperville, Illinois.

Kaye moved from Wheaton, Illinois to Venice, Florida in 1990. She was a member of the Epiphany Cathedral CCW where she was an usher for many years and had volunteered at the parish library since her move to the area.

She volunteered over 5000 hours at the Venice Hospital which is now known as Venice Regional Medical Center. Kaye loved family, friends, the Symphony and Ballet.

She read Veraciously newspapers, magazines as in Vanity Fair, and books covering an electric and wide range of books. She was petite, polished, personable and a joy to know.

Kaye was predeceased by her brothers Bartholomew, David, Raymond and James.

She is survived by her nieces Dorothy Bruno of Westerly, RI, Kathleen von Hofe of Branford, CT and her nephews Brian Minter and Patrick Minter of Branford, CT and Francis Minter of Berlin, CT. Kaye is also survived by many grand nieces and nephews.

She will be truly missed by her dear friend Joyce Mahaffy.

A Memorial Mass will be celebrated in the Epiphany Cathedral at the convenience of the family at a later date.

Memorials may be made to the Epiphany Cathedral Foundation, 310 Sarasota Street, Venice, Fl. 34285.

Toale Brothers Funeral Home, Ewing Chapel is handling arrangements.

Tribute Wall

JP

“ Condolence to her family from her cousin in the Irish midlands close to where her mother was born and to the factory where she worked before leaving here to land at Ellis Island.

---

joseph price - August 27, 2018 at 12:00 AM

YS

“ My deepest sympathy to the family and friends. May Gods loving kindness bring comfort and strength to you at this very difficult time. Psalms 29:11 God gives us strength

---

Y S - September 26, 2017 at 12:00 AM